READ—

G. O. 1827-80—E. A. G. 308, dated 16th May 1921, laying down the policy of Government on the question of the adequate representation of backward communities in the public service.

G. O. No. E. A. 2013-92—E. A. 14-21-6, dated 28th November 1921, issuing general rules for regulating appointments and promotions in State Service.

3. G. O. No. E. A. 2093-172—E. A. 14-21-7, dated 28th November 1921, issuing supplementary instructions for regulating the filling up of vacancies in the ministerial ranks of superior service.

4. The following extract from the address of the Adi Dravida Abhivardhini Sangham at the Dasara Session of the Representative Assembly of 1921.

> "We pray that it may be definitely ordered that every qualified candidate of the depressed classes who seeks an appointment should be given preference both in point of appointment and of starting pay over every other candidate and also that the Central Recruitment Board should always contain at least one representative from among the depressed classes".

ORDER No. 3809-80—E. A. 41-21-1, DATED 20TH FEBRUARY 1922.

Government view with sympathy the prayer of the Adi Dravida community in the matter of giving special preference to the candidates of the depressed classes as regards appointments in the public service and are pleased to direct that qualified candidates of depressed classes seeking employment in Government Departments should be given the first preference.

K. MATTHAN,
Chief Secretary to Government.
